GOVERNMENT HOUSE

REGINA

The enthusiasm shown throughout Saskatchewan during the visit of the Prince of Wales is a proof not only of devotion to the Throne by the people of the Province, but of the remarkable personal regard which His Royal Highness inspires wherever he goes. The display of mutual esteem and affection between the Prince and the people was the outstanding feature of the visit.

PREMIER'S OFFICE

Bonds of empire will be strengthened by the visit of His Royal Highness.

Premier of Saskatchewan.

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR

CITY OF REGINA

Regina said farewell to His Royal Highness with deep regret, and greatly appreciated the sympathy expressed towards our returned boys, and the friendly spirit shown to all our citizens. He is himself a westerner now, as he has said, and his attitude while in our midst, truly indicates how quickly he adopted our western manner.

Mayor of Regina.

ROYAL NORTH-WEST MOUNTED POLICE
COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE

On the sixth day of October His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales inspected the "Depot" of the Royal North West Mounted Police. His Royal Highness was graciously pleased to express his appreciation of the services of the Force and his remarks were highly appreciated by all ranks.

Commissioner.
